II. STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION AND PREVIOUS LAWSUITS:

Jurisdiction over this action exists in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana because Kevin and Tara Alvey got a divorce on 2-27-20 where Tara frauded Kevin out of all the marital property _____

If the same facts alleged or claims made in this suit have been previously presented to any other state or federal court in an earlier suit, for each such earlier suit identify the parties, the Court in which it was filed, the docket number assigned to the suit, the status of such earlier suit, (for example: pending, dismissed, set for trial, on appeal, etc.). and the nature of the disposition if the earlier case is closed.

IV. CAUSE OF ACTION

State which of your constitutional or federal rights, privileges or immunities have been violated and summarize in one or two sentences what the defendant(s) did to violate your rights in that regard. If you are claiming that more than one of your constitutional rights were violated, use a separate paragraph (ground) for each right, privilege or immunity which was violated. If you have more than three (3) grounds, identify them in a separate attached piece of paper.

Ground 1: Tara defrauded Kevin out of all the marital property by taking it or selling it_____

Ground 2: _____

Ground 3: _____

(Identify additional grounds on a separate sheet of paper)

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

State here the FACTS of your case. You should outline both the facts on which your suit is based and the particular role of each defendant in those circumstances.

Tara told the court during the divorce that there was no marital property when there was a lot that needed to be spit up but Tara saw fit to keep and sell everything and not give Kevin any of the profits Mr. Alvey has figured up that there was some $140500 that should have been split up between the two of them
